BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with ; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held ; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms ; all of which can be shown, and terms made known on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE,
Fairfax Court-House, Va.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly : had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. IS known to have been kidnapped from a field near Germantown, between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock, on the 30th ult. whilst at work alone, a Free Black Man, named HENRY HUDSON, aged between 21 and 22 years, of the height of five feet five inches, very black complexion and dark eyes, has a scar under his left arm, between the wrist and elbow, occasioned by the cut of an axe.

He is by occupation a farmer, a native of Kent county, in the state of Delaware, had on a blue cloth roundabout jacket, old black silk vest, corded velvet pantaloons, and a wool hat.

He is a very civil, inoffensive man, with rather a down look. There is reason to suppose that he was decoyed into a carriage, and conveyed southward.

Any information respecting him will be thankfully received. Keepers of turnpike gates, toll bridges, and taverns, are particularly requested to give such information as may be in their power.

Chillicothe, (Ohio) April 15 19t*

For Sale or Lease,

THE following tracts of land in Charles county, Maryland : one lying on the Potomac, at the mouth of Pomonkey creek, containing three hundred and forty acres, about 16 miles from Alexandria, the larger portion level land, of a stiff soil, well adapted to the cultivation of corn, wheat and tobacco, and equal in fertility to any in the neighborhood. On this farm is one of the most elegant sites for building of all those fine heights which border the Potomac, commanding the most extensive view of the adjacent country, both in Virginia and Maryland, for more than twenty miles up and down the river : located in a genteel neighborhood, it would make an agreeable residence, and from its proximity to market, with the advantage of the best navigation, an extremely profitable farm.—The tenant's houses would accommodate the negroes for its cultivation.

A Tract, about one mile back from the former, containing 334 acres, a large portion in wood, white and red oak, and some chesnut ; the remainder a tenement in tolerable repair, the whole a high stiff soil, similar to the one above mentioned.

A Tract, lying at the mouth of Mattawoman Creek, about 25 miles from Alexandria, the whole first rate flat river land, now completely enclosed.—On this tract is a noted fishery, called Rum Point, at which there has been cleared upwards of two thousand dollars per annum, and where independent of the fish sold on the shore, there might be put up from one to two thousand barrels every season ; besides the profits of the fishery, the advantage of manuring the farm with the offal of the shore, the whole, with a small portion of industry, might be made to produce ten barrels of corn per acre. On the shore, are a dwelling house, houses for holding salt, and curing any quantity of fish, and for the accommodation of hands.

A Tract, lying about 1½ miles from the last mentioned, containing 236 acres, more than 200 of which are in wood, and would cut from 25 to 30 cords per acre, within one mile of the river, where wood has rarely sold for less than five dollars per cord. It will be divided into 50 or 25 acre lots, to suit purchasers.—If preferred, the wood will be sold standing, for so much per acre.

If not disposed of, previous to the first day of Sept. next, the above mentioned arable lands, will be leased out, upon advantageous terms, for five or seven years, at the option of the lessees.

Application to be made to the subscriber, residing near the head of Mattawoman Creek, Charles county, Maryland.

GAZETTE

Daily Gazette, 7 dolls...Country, 5 dolls.

FRIDAY, JULY 30, 1819.

Two persons, by the names of Dorrance and Hare, were arrested in this city on Tuesday last, on a charge, by officers who pursued them from Baltimore, of uttering and passing counterfeit money. They underwent a long examination before the Mayor, and were committed for further examination. They are said to be associates of those persons lately apprehended at Baltimore, on a similar charge, and to have made their escape from the custody of the officers at Baltimore, who overtook them and caused them to be apprehended here. [Nat. Int.

Baltimore, July 27.

The following is the description of the counterfeit notes, made in imitation of the two dollar notes of the Mechanics' Bank of Baltimore, and of the difference between them and the real notes, which has been communicated for publication.

They are of the letter A. dated July 4th, 1817. The following distinctions may serve to detect them.

The first difference between the original and counterfeit note, is, that the paper—which in the genuine is thick, white, and partially mixed with red silk; the counterfeit is thin, flimsy, and somewhat of a bluesh cast. The genuine notes have a water mark of five circles, running along the body of the note, a large circle in the centre, and two smaller ones on either side.

The next difference is in the engraving, the vignette in the counterfeit is considerably coarser, the figure, a carpenter sawing plank, is badly executed, especially about the head and face, in the execution of which the light and shade is not well preserved. There is less light upon the face, and the left arm is both darker and smaller.

In the counterfeit note there is but one dot instead of three on the centre of the B in the word Bank—immediately behind the B, over the letter A, in the same word of the genuine bill, there is a small flourish with three dots upon it, which, in the forged bill, is entirely omitted. All the counterfeits are filled in and signed with glazed ink, and badly numbered. [Fed. Gaz.

We have daily new cause for cautioning the public to be careful in examining all bank notes which are offered in payment by strangers or persons of suspicious character; more particularly such as are offered after sunset. Yesterday, at dusk, a decent looking woman bought some articles in a store in Market-street amounting to four dollars, gave the store keeper what appeared to be a twenty dollar note, and received sixteen dollars in change. On examination, the note which she gave, proves to be a one dollar note of the Bank of Maryland, altered to twenty. The alteration is very palpable when the note is examined by day light. [Ibid.

NORTH CAROLINA BANK PAPER.

We congratulate the public, (says the Petersburg Intelligencer of Friday last) upon the prospect of a speedy relief from our present pecuniary difficulties, as far as regards the depreciated state of Carolina Bank paper. We understand that such arrangements have been made between the Banks in this town and the president of the State Bank, Raleigh, [Mr. Boylan, who has been here several days] as will in a very short time place the paper of North Carolina at par with our own. The plan which has been agreed upon, will go into operation as soon as ratified by all the parties concerned.

A letter from Fayetville, of the 17th, states, that the directors of the State Bank of North Carolina have had a meeting (at Raleigh)—at which they determined to propose to the Virginia Banks "to take their notes and reciprocate with one another." Such are the terms of the letter. It is rumored that an agent has accordingly arrived in Petersburg, who has proposed to place in each of the Virginia branches at Petersburg $50,000 in specie, upon condition that each of these banks would take up $100,000 of its (N. C. State Bank) paper; the additional $50,000 for which it would thus fall in debt to each of our banks, it pledged itself to repay in specie or northern funds, soon after the 100,000 had been taken up. It was not ascertained, but supposed by some, that the Virginia Banks would come into this arrangement. In consequence of this, it is said, that one or two houses in Petersburg had received their paper at 10 per cent. discount, under the idea that in a short time it would rise to par. The Bank of North Carolina, however, has a large sum afloat; and the absorption of even 200,000 dollars could have no permanent effect upon the value of its paper. [Richmond Enquirer.

EXECUTION.

On the 1st instant, at 12 o'clock, Negosheik and Negoneba, two Indians of the Ottawa tribe, were executed at Norwalk, Huron county, Ohio, in pursuance to sentence of death pronounced upon them in May last, by the Court of Common Pleas, for the murder of Wood and Bishop, on Carrying river, at the west end of lake Erie.—They were taken by their own tribe, and given up to the whites by their Chief, who preferred executing them in his own way, to that of hanging, or weighing, as he termed it; at the same time pronouncing them worthy of death. At 11 o'clock, the prisoners were unironed for the purpose of being conveyed to the place of Divine service—on their being placed in a wagon for that purpose, Negosheik gave a long war whoop; from thence they were conveyed to the place of worship, where they, their interpreter, (a Mr. Fleming) their chief, and seven others of their tribe, surrounded with armed militia, who formed a hollow square, when an able and appropriate prayer was made by the Rev. Mr. ———, and a sermon suited to the occasion, was preached to about two thousand spectators, by the Rev. Mr. ——— with prayer; after which the procession was formed, and moved to the place of execution in the following order:

In front—Commanding officer of the guard; 2d, Sheriff; 3d, Clergymen; 4th, Music, playing Alknomak, or Indian warrior; 5th, Hollow square, inclosing prisoners; 6th, Their Interpreter, Chief, & their other Indian friends—followed in close and regular order by horsemen and footmen. After arriving at the place of execution, the gallows was enclosed by the guard, who kept their station until the execution was finished.—Negosheik sent for his chief when on the scaffold, and requested him to take good care of his (Negosheik's) children, and bring them up to be better than he had been.

We are happy to state to the honor of Huron county, that the prisoners have been attended with that tenderness and hospitality which becomes a christian people, and that solemnity and good order reigned throughout the whole scene.

Richmond, July 22.

TRULY MELANCHOLY.

Between 11 and 12 oclock on this forenoon in the garret of one of the buildings of the Union Hotel, ORRILL BROCK, the keeper of that establishment, was found suspended to a collar-beam by a strong cord, and entirely lifeless.

The circumstances attending this tragical event are, that about a fortnight ago, a man in a state of intoxication, forced himself into the Union Hotel in a very indecent and improper manner. Mr. Brock, after using persuasive means to turn him into the street, was compelled to strike him with his open hand, one or more blows—The intoxicated man left the house, but soon returned with language and manner more indecent than before. Mr. Brock then took from him a stick or a cane, which he held, and gave him some blows.

The man remained several days in this city, but made no complaint to the officers of Police, and travelled on foot to the county of Goochland, a distance of from 30 to 40 miles.

Since ten o'clock this morning, it was abruptly communicated to Mr. Brock, that the man was dead, and that his death had been attributed to the beating. Mr. Brock gave several orders for the government of the Hotel about the Bar, retired to his wife's chamber, where he wrote a few lines, recommending his wife to the care of Doctor Adams, and proceeded with great haste to the Garret, where the fatal deed was committed.

A rumor prevailed in New-Orleans, on the 25th ult. that the Schr. Two Friends, which had recently sailed from that port for St. Thomas, had been attacked by a Spanish armed vessel: that several of the Schooner's crew and passengers were either killed or wounded in the contest: and that among the wounded was the celebrated General Humbert.

FROM BUENOS AYRES.

Captain Page, of the Diomede, informs, that it was very dull times on the east and west of the river of Plate.

At Buenos Ayres preparations were making for the 25th of May, on which day the Director was to be chosen by the people, and the new constitution then to be declared.

But few hides were to be had, as the communication with the country was cut off by Artigas and his neighbors. Peace was not expected with them. [Gaz.

SOUTH AMERICA.

Extract of a letter from an officer in the Patriot army, to his friend in Richmond, dated

Western Side of the Sabine, Province of Texas, June 23, 1819.

"We did not cross the Sabine on the 1oth, as I had calculated when I wrote you last. It was necessarily deferred until the 12th. Our force has considerably increased since crossing, and numbers daily join our standard, which was hoisted as soon as we touched the shores of Texas, under a salute of 21 guns.—Our march has been delayed, in consequence of not having received a supply of powder, which we are in hourly expectation of. You may expect my next letter to be dated from St. Antone, Labodie or Monteray; the former of which has a weak fortress, manned by a few worn-out troops. We expect nothing from either of those places but what we may pretty generally expect from Spaniards—tame submission.

From the New-York Daily Advertiser.

Mr. Editor—There is no information communicated to the public through the medium of newspapers more valuable than that which saves the lives of their readers—a simple recipe, that can do no harm to an infant, may arrest the most destructive disorder. Such is the following, which ought to be published in every paper throughout the United States; especially at a season when so many children die of the summer complaint, and the cholera morbus sweeps off adults like a destroying sword:—Take a soft cork, and burn it thoroughly in the fire, when it ceases to blaze, mix it up on a plate with a little milk and water, or any thing more agreeable to the palate, and repeat the dose till the disorder ceases; which it commonly does in the second or third administration of the remedy, the acidity of the stomach is immediately corrected, and the effect instantaneous. I have seen a person in the greatest agony of the bilious cholic effectually cured with a single draught of this carbonic preparation, within the power of every family, and ready at the shortest notice. I hope therefore that you will publish it for the benefit of the community. Yours,

MEDICUS.

Norfolk, July 26.

In the ship Edward Barden, Capt. Devereux, which arrived here on Saturday from Liverpool, came passengers Mr. R. R. Wilson, prize-master, and 4 of the crew of the Buenos Ayrean armed brig Constitution, Capt. Browne. Mr. Wilson has furnished us with the following information:

On the 8th May, off Malaga, the Constitution captured a Spanish polacre brig, and having put Mr. Wilson and a prize crew on board, proceeded in chase of several other vessels, then in sight, ordering him to keep company for a short time, which was done until 11 o'clock on the night of 11th May, when a heavy gale arising he was compelled to part company; at which time Mr. Wilson supposed himself to be ahead and to leward of the Constitution, with two prizes in company.—After cruizing 24 hours in search of, and having no hope of falling in with her, the wind and sea still increasing, the prize laboring much and shipping considerable water, being near the Spanish shore concluded it would be best to run out of the Gut of Gibraltar, in the hope of again falling in with the Constitution, in which they were unsuccessful. Took a departure from Cape Trafalgar, without quadrant or chart, having on board only a very few pounds of beef and bread, but little water, and no clothes but what they had on. On the 25th June, in lat. 42 long. 53 30, fell in with the British brig Findlay, 16 days from Antigua bound to London, who supplied them with a few gallons of water, and a chart.—Mr. Wilson supposed himself to be at this time in lat. 39, long. 65. On the 29th, fell in with the ship Edward Barden, in lat. 42. long. 53 30—determined to give the prize up to Capt. Devereux, upon salvage, her sails being torn to pieces and the crew destitute of provisions. Capt. D. put 3 men on board, with an officer, and ordered her to Norfolk.

The following vessels had been captured by the Constitution, previous to Mr. Wilson's leaving her.

April 12, 1819, near the Western Islands a Spanish brig, from Laguira, bound to Cadiz, with a cargo of Cocoa, Coffee and Indigo—ordered her for Buenos Ayres.—May 5th off Malaga, a Spanish brig, from Valencia, bound to Cadiz, with Wine and Brandy—ordered her for Buenos Ayres.—May 7th, captured a Spanish Lugger, from Valencia, bound to Cadiz, with wine and Olive Oil—put 3 officers and 20 men on board and sent her in pursuit of several sail in shore. Next morning, (8th) she captured a brig from Valencia, bound to Cadiz, with a cargo of Brandy and Wine—ordered her for the Constitution.—May 10th the Constitution captured a beautiful Spanish letter of marque brig, mounting 10 guns, with 30 men, from Cadiz, bound to Barcelona, cargo Cocoa, Coffee and Tea, and manned her out.

Capt Devereux brought in two of his crew in irons, charged with mutiny and violence to the master. They underwent an examination before the Mayor on Saturday evening, and were committed for further trial.

Extract of a letter from a respectable mercantile house in Oporto, to their friend in Philadelphia, dated June 2, 1819.

The dearth of mercantile information has been the cause of our protracted silence, added to the continued depressed state of our market for grain as well as almost every article of European as well as of American growth. We regret extremely not being able to advise an amelioration, on the contrary a still greater depression with an immense stock on hand. We avail of this opportunity to advise you of the Portuguese government having lately imposed an additional duty of 80 rs. on wheat, and 100 rs. on Indian corn per al q. which we hope will effectually discourage further shipments from your side for some time to come. We refer you to our quotations.—Exchange on London 58½; dollars 847; agio 18 3-4; corn 360; wheat 750 a 800; rye 420; barley 280; cod oil 4-600; staves 75-100.

THE OCEAN HARP—A POEM.

We cannot resist taking up the pen to express the delight with which we have just read the Ocean Harp, and the mournful pleasure with which we hail the shipwreck of such a harp upon our shores; yes, we must emphatically say the shipwreck, for who will deny that all the arts which soften and embellish life are here, not only neglected, but despised. The very best poet has left it upon record that these are

"Blasting skies,
Where genius sickens, and where fancy dies"

This charming poem reminded us of Byron, the ascendant lord of modern song, of Scott, and of Rogers, not as a tame imitation of either, but it struck upon a chord of our memory, which vibrated with the delightful associations these Heaven inspired authors had entwined with it.

We had already thrilled with melancholy pleasure at the farewell verses to England, and believing them the production of the transcendant poet to whom they were ascribed, we had wondered how any heart could exist, impenetrable to the Shenstonian tenderness and Byronic fire with which they glowed. There is but one single line in these verses we could wish to see changed, and this affects us, as would the view of an unsightly insect, crawling up an alabster vase of exquisite workmanship. Shall we be pardoned for saying, that conveys no image to the mind, but that of disgust, and when we came to it, it was some minutes before we recovered the tone of feeling which every preceding line had awakened.

The Ocean Harp is worthy of the poet whose lyre could be mistaken for Lord Byron. It abounds in beauties of every kind. The enthusiasm with which the author invokes this country is delightful: would that it might be perennial! that he might indeed find it the home of the desolate, and not that he has given to airy vision, 'a local habitation and a name!' would that he might never come in contact with 'Apes of God,' who even here may shew him,

"That man, proud man, dressed in a little brief authority," is the same in every clime.

We have neither time nor space for many extracts, but we were too forcibly struck by the lines upon the neglected state of Washington's remains, not to present them here to the reader:

"For him, indeed, no eloquence of stone,
Could speak superior praise: There was a tone [sure,
In all his acts, which, till the poles oppo-
Would shame the wealth of language on his tomb:—
Yet some slight tribute to a name is dear,
Beyond the fleeting homage of a tear,
Such work might claim: is gratitude a charm,
So brief of being, that it takes alarm
At Death's pale visage, o'er the new made grave
Withers, and finds a burial with the brave?
The very dog which from his master's hand,
Devour'd his daily mess, train'd at command,
To play the servile mendicant, and urge
Irrational faculties to reason's verge,
Gains fun'ral rites; and on the garden lawn,
Where he was wont to gambol & to fawn,
'Some studied words the debt of mem'ry pay—
'Reason respect the turf that covers Tray:'
Yet could not all the hearts of millions raise
To grace a Washington, one pile of praise.
Who, when the recreant spirits of the time,
Call'd firmness folly, & endurance crime;
Here treach'rous friends, an open faction there,
Foes on his rear, and in his front, despair,
But the concenter'd currents as they came,
Beat back the waves, and won eternal fame— [thrown,
Lies like a slave, 'mid common corse
Marble, nor epitaph, nor index!—none!
Oh, if the spirits of the dead can know
The deeds of earth; and aught of mortal woe, [feed
Bosoms etherial pierce, tears that might
Autumnal clouds, or summer's thirsty need
Supply with fruitful showers, those eyes might yield
As all Columbia's pen'ry stands reveal'd!
How would his charg'd heart swell, as clos'd up life
Open'd once more its chronicle of strife,
And, on the faded surface of the brain,
Display'd the pageantry of time again;
Recall'd the deeds his baring arm had done,
Ages of freedom for his country won,
Yet not a heap of stones nor rough hewn stave,
To mark the area, hallowed by his grave!"

We here find the sentiments and expressions of our stranger poet in direct opposition with those of the native author of the Backwoodsman, who exults that his country's Hero reposes in dust, unmarked even by a stone; we agree with Mr. Paulding, That wheresoe'er a Washington may rest, There, fame shall make her everlasting nest.

But, by the bye, whenever this same nest shall be made, we much doubt whether she will ever lay at least a poetical egg in it for Mr. Paulding.

That it is the hero who gives lustre to the monument, and not the monument to the hero, is as indisputable a truism as if the author had logically proved to us that when the sun is in its meridian, it is noonday. We all know that no marble trophy can lend a beam to the effulgence of Washington's glory, but have we no gratitude to commemorate? Almost all the remains of antiquity that attest the departed grandeur of Greece and Rome are ruins of temples and monuments erected to the gods and benefactors of their country; and gratitude in nations as well as individuals is one of the noblest virtues that adorns humanity. What must the foreigner who visits these shores think of the flourishing state of this noble and ennobling virtue amongst us, when in this vast country, amidst these wide extended states, which owe their liberty, their glory, their independence to the genius and virtue of Washington, he finds but one solitary attempt to raise a monument, not to the fame of this father of his country, but of his children's gratitude, and that the languishing funds for erecting that, were raised by lottery, thus giving to the world an unblushing proof, that the key-stone of our gratitude is the hope of lucre!!!

To return to the Ocean Harp; we might perhaps observe that some negligent verses grate harshly on the ear, and that some expressions are too familiar for the general tone of the poem, but we have no pretensions to be critics, and if we had, we would not dash aside the fragrant leaves of the rose, to number the thorns that grow upon its stock. We cordially welcome Mr. Agg to our little repository of the mighty living and the dead, where duns forgetting, would we could say by duns forgot, we wing away the moments in rapture, which but for them would be given to corroding cares.—Had we but the genius of Walcott, like him

From eve to morn,
From blushing morn to darkling eve again,
Our muse the brow of merit should adorn,
And lark-like swell the panegyric strain.

PUBLIC NOTICE,

IS hereby given, that the annual quotas required of country members became due on the 4th instant—those required from the town members have been due for some time.—It is impossible in the collection of either to give such indulgence as heretofore. The low state of the country funds demands punctuality on the part of the members, and an equal necessity (tho' owing to a different cause) exists for punctuality in the town's delinquents.—After the 15th of August, all delinquents will be proceeded against at the September courts, this latter course, however unpleasant, is one absolutely due to the punctual members, upon whom should not be thrown the sole support of the institution, whilst the delinquents are entitled to equal advantages.

The members residing in Alexandria & Fairfax, are informed their accounts are lodged in the Farmers' Bank of Alexandria, where payments may be made.

Land for Sale.

I WILL sell a great bargain in a small tract of land, containing about 150 acres, more or less, lying on the Potomac river and Monroe's creek, between the two, on the north side said creek, and forming the mouth, whereon William Williams has for many years resided. This situation would be particularly convenient for any person who follows the water, the Creek forming an excellent harbor, and the neighborhood being wealthy, constant freights might be got. The land is susceptible of great improvement, and is the very best wheat land in all the neighborhood. As it is presumed any person wishing to purchase will first view the premises, a further description is thought unnecessary. For terms apply to the subscriber, near Mattox Bridge, Westmoreland county, Virginia.

Lands for Sale.

BY VIRTUE of a power of attorney from William S. Courts to the subscriber, will be sold at public sale.

On WEDNESDAY, the 18th AUGUST, in Port Tobacco, that valuable tract of land whereon John H. Barnes at present resides called Whitland and Cole,
lying and being in Charles county Maryland, containing between three and four hundred acres. This land is handsomely situated, lying immediately on Mataw-oman Creek, at least one third of which is in wood, with a sufficient quantity of marsh land for grazing—that part of the land which is in cultivation is well adapted to the growth of corn, wheat and tobacco, and with proper care would be equal, if not superior to any land in that neighborhood.

ALSO,

At the same time and place, will be offered for sale the plantation at present in the occupancy of Francis & Sam'l Wheeler, lying about one mile from the above place, containing about four hundred acres. As it is presumed that persons wishing to purchase will first view the premises, it is thought unnecessary to give a more particular description thereof. The terms of sale will be as follows: viz. possession given on the first day of January next, at which time one third of the purchase money will be required, the remaining two thirds at one and two years the purchaser giving bond with approved security with interest.—Upon the payment of the whole purchase money, a sufficient deed will be executed to the purchaser.

Five Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY, on Monday the 19th inst. a yellow boy, about 20 years old, about 5 feet 2 inches high, he has a scar on his forehead; by name HENRY;—had when he ran away, two pair white sheeting pantaloons, one Osnaburg shirt, one red flannel do. a new waistcoat, deep buff with large black and white figures in it, a round dark jacket. The said boy I hired out of Thomas Mason's estate, Woodbridge, deceased. Any person who will apprehend the said boy, and fetch him to me, or lodge him in any jail, shall receive the above reward.
HENLY NELSON,
Brick Tavern, near Alexandria, on the road leading to Dumfries.

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

ON Monday, the 28th June, eloped from Bell Isle, King George county, Virginia, two negro men, DAVID and JOHN. David is a black fellow, about forty years of age, rather below the middle size, has invariably a smile when spoken to, a good hand in the field, and a tolerable wagoner; his clothing, when he absconded, were an old felt hat, a double milled drab great coat, much worn, lined with red flannel, jacket and pantaloons of domestic cotton and yarn cloth, and a coarse linen shirt. David has a wife belonging to Mr. John Singer, who some years since moved from Culpeper county to Harrison county, Va. and for the last two years has been in habits of intimacy with a negro woman by the name of Rose, who was sold last fall, by Mrs. Berryman, of King George, to Mr. George Mason, of Gunston, Fairfax co. Va. it is probable he will attempt to get to one of these neighborhoods. Jack is a lively black fellow, about thirty years of age, of the middle size, a little bow legged, rather an awkward hand in the field, having been bred a house servant, at which he excells, rather a surly disposition, and by profession a Baptist. He has a father belonging to Mr John B. S. Fitzhugh, near Falmouth, Stafford co. Va. and a wife and family belonging to Mr Thos. Fitzhugh, of Brenton, Prince William co. it is highly probable he is lurking in one of these neighborhoods; had on when he absconded, an old hat, a suit of domestic cloth cotton and yarn, and a brown linen shirt, and carried with him a suit of white domestic jeans. It is probable he and David will change their names and dress. FIFTY DOLLARS will be given for apprehending and securing in jail said negroes, or half for either, if taken in the state of Virginia, or District of Columbia; or the above reward, if taken out of the state, & all reasonable charges, if brought home to the subscriber's residence. Masters of vessels, and others, are forewarned from harboring or carrying off said negroes.

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania:—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain; being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25
